

QUEER TROTTING TRANSACTIONS.

Cases Brought Before the Horse Tribunal—A Congress to be Convened.

A curious illustration of tricks on the trotting track was related yesterday by Secretary Thomas J. Vail of the Board of Review of the National Trotting Association, while furnishing a list of decisions made at the meeting just closed.

At a trot during the Nebraska State fair at Omaha, Mr. Edward Pye entered b. & Maxie Cobb, J. W. Jacobs entered b. & Colorado, and J. F. Kinney entered b. & Alarm. These were the only horses in the trot, Colorado and Alarm were owned by Kinney, who had turned them over to Jacobs to handle. It was the case of two against one, and a violation of rule 8, which declares that one horse only, owned or controlled wholly or partly, by the same person or persons, can start in any contest of heats. Maxie Cobb won the first two heats, and Colorado and Alarm the third. The result gave Maxie Cobb in the fourth. Mr. Pye then protested that Colorado and Alarm had no business in that trot according to rule 8, and claimed the right to have the horses withdrawn. The president ordered that as the protest was not made previous to trotting the fourth heat, Mr. Pye could not take the protest into consideration, but must give the premium to the givers; and that Colorado and Alarm remain suspended until the protest is returned.

In the case of the horses of Harrykins of Tarrytown and the trotter Lew Tallman, it was ordered that the premiums which had been awarded the horses through the connection of a club, be turned over to the association, and the competitor, owner and horse to remain suspended until such premiums were returned.

In the case of the horses of the trotter against the Cheval Driving Park of Cincinnati, the application for removal of suspension of Isaac Knight and his son, Tom R. Fahey, was denied.

The horses of the teamsters of Union Springs and M. Geddin, Belmont Park, an application for removal of suspension, including the mares Honeysuckle and Lady Queen, was denied.

The case of H. S. and C. of Alabama, in which b. & Hopeful and b. & Fred Taylor figured in alleged suspension of time, was dismissed without a protest, as the record had been kept. A similar case, involving S. S. Pickering of Alabama, b. & Blood Chief and a. & Mary Chief, was similarly dismissed.

The horses of the teamsters of the Horse of Indianapolis, by the Catskill Park Association, was denied.

Mr. Ward W. Phillips of Swampscott, who had paid $4,000 for the road, calling Dispatch, beating all his neighbors in trets over the seas, made an extra application for removal of suspension, as he had been suspended for a month.
